Hawaiian problem solving process to release memories that are experienced as problems was created and developed by Morrnah Nalamaku Simeona, a Hawaiian kahuna lapaau. She was recognized by the State of Hawaii as a living treasure in 1983. Morrnah Nalamaku Simeona, born on May 19, 1913, and passed away on February 11, 1992, was a Hawaiian herbal healer and gifted teacher who was born in Honolulu, Hawaii, to Kimokeo and Lilia Simeona, both native Hawaiians.

In the 1950s, hooponopono was refined and given a deeper spiritual meaning by Morrnah Nalamaku Simeona. She used hooponopono to establish a greater awareness of God or spirit alive within us, which she felt that we live in partnership with spirit to co-create a life of harmony and peace.
